

“THE RIGHTEOUS SHALL LIVE BY FAITH”

Romans 1:13–17

Key Verse: 1:17

1. In verse 13, what personal goal does Paul share with the believers in Rome? In verse 14, what obligation does he describe? In verse 15, for what is he eager?
2. In verse 16, what does he say about the gospel? Why does he say he is “not ashamed” of it? What is this “power of God for salvation”? Why does he add “to the Jew first and also to the Greek” (16b)?
3. In verse 17, what else does Paul say about the gospel? What does “the righteousness of God” mean? Why does it need to be “revealed”?
4. What does the expression “from faith for faith” tell us (4:5; see also Phil.3:9)? How can we have this faith (10:17; see also Eph.2:8)?
5. To support his point, what quotation does Paul use, and why (17b; see also Gal.3:11)? How can we build our lives on this faith?
